PENCILETTES.

Kingston East Tennessecan: The vacancy in this charge occasioned by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Brunner, has been filled by the appointment of Rev. T. W. Brown, of Cleveland, Tennessee.

Cleveland Herald: The county assessor thinks he will muster up about 1,200 dogs in his rounds. He says the old women sometimes hide their purps under the beds, but he manages to assess them.

Greeneville American: Mike Day, while driving an ox team through an open field, some miles below lown, during one of the heavy storms of last week, was struck by lightning and in-stantly killed. In the same locality, we also learn, Mr. Kirk lost two horses by lightning.

Chattanooga Times . Dr. F. Painter, of this city, yesterday shipped a cot-ton-mouth moccasin snake to the Royal Zoological Society, of London, England.—The noble red man who attempted to kill two soldiers and himself, at Nashville, when the band of Indians passed through on their way to St. Augustine, has recovered from his wound and passed through this city yesterday in charge of Sergeant Foley to join his brethren at St.

Foley to join his brethren at St. Augustine.

Silent Observer: Miss Fannie Gillem, a daughter of General Gillem, of Nashville, who has been attending the Hartford Institution for four years past, seriously contemplates coming to school here next Fall.—Miss Kate Haslam, John Parsons, and John C. Weigle were each awarded a prize by their teacher, Mr. Moses, for excelling in recitation. Miss Kate received a handsome silver cup, with her name beautifully engraved upon it, and each of the boys was given a fine knife. Naturally enough they are quite proud of their laurels.

Saturday evening, a young Mr.

Saturday evening, a young Mr. Lynch was thrown from his horse at St. Clair and badly bruised. It was feared he had received some internal injury.—We regret to hear that Mrs. Jos. H. Earnest, of Rheatown, while on a visit at the residence of her relative, Mr. Ben. Earnest, of Greene county, last Saturday, had the misfortune of receiving a very painful injury. time of receiving a very painful injury. In hastily descending the front steps of the residence she made a mis-step and was thrown to the ground with such violence as to break the bones below the elbow of one of her arms— Morristown Gazette.

Parson Howell, of the colored Baptist Church, informed us yesterday that the colored woman Barbara Lacy, was interred by him and several other friends in accordance with the advice of the physician who had attended her, and that she had been sick for a week or more before she died. As to the articles carried away, be says they were all second-hand clothing which had been left with her to sell, and as they were not sold, the owners called and claimed their property, and that they were handed out by a man who had been living with the deceased and had been attending to her business for

The Growth of London.

The Leisure Hour, speaking of the growth of London, says: "The metropolis of the British Empire, the largest city the world ever saw, covers, with-in fifteen miles: radius of Charlog Cross, nearly 700 square miles, and numbers within these boundaries 4,000,000 inhabitants. It contains more Jews than the whole of Pales-tine, poors, Roman, Catholias the nore Jews than the whole of Palestine, more Roman Catholics than Rome itself, more Irish than Dublia more Scotchmen than Edinburgh. The port of London has every day on its waters 1,001 ships and 9,000 sallors.
Upward of 120 persons are added to the population daily, or 40,000 yearly, a birth taking place every five minutes, and a death every eight minutes.
On an average twenty eight miles of On an average twenty eight miles of kouses built every year. In its postal districts there is a yearly delivery of 238,000,000 letters. On the police register there are the names of 120,000 hater there are the names of 120,000 habitual criminals, increasing by many thousands every year. More than one third of all crime of the country is committed in London, or at least brought to light there. There are as many beershops and gin-palaces as would, if their fronts were placed side by side, reach from Charing Cross to Portsmouth, a distance of seventy-three miles, and 38,000 drunkards are annually brought before its magistrates. About Hating.

Hate not. It is not worth while. Your life is not long enough to make it pay to cherish ill-will or hard thoughts toward any one. What if that man has cheated you, or that woman played you false? What if this friend has forsaken you in your time of need, or that one having won your utmost confidence, your warmest love, has concluded that he prefers to consider and treat you as *a stranger? Let it all puss. What difference will it make to you in a few years, when you go MALE IRREGULARITIES, without a rival. won your utmost confidence, your warmest love, has concluded that he prefers to consider and treat you as a stranger? Let it all pass. What difference will it make to you in a few years, when you go hence to the "undiscovered country?" All who ill-treat you now will be more sorry for it then, than you, even in your deepest disappointment and grief, can be. A few more smiles, a few more tears, some pleasure, much pain, a little longer DR. TUTT'S HAIRDYE thurrying and worrying through the world, some hasty greetings and abrupt farewells, and our play will be "played out," and the injurer and the injured will be led away, and ere long forgotten. Is it worthy to hate each other?

off for Europe.

The Union and American says the The Union and American says the following Tennesseeans will sail for Europe in the steamer "City of Berlin," on the 19th inst: Miss Martha Overton, Miss Lazinka Elliston, Misses Margie and Lawson McGhee, daughters of Col. Chas. M. McGhee, of Knoxville. They will be accompanied by Dr. W. E. Ward, of Ward's Seminary, Nashville.

To read, to think, to love, to hope and to pray; these are the things that make men happy. They have power to do these things; they never will have power to do more. The world's prosperity or adversity depends upon our knowing and teaching these few things, but upon iron or glass, steam or electricity, in no wise.—Ruskin.
